WINE COMPETITION

LARGEST COMPETITION OF NORTH AMERICAN WINES

DeMayo Vineyard is an acclaimed, east-western facing and gentling sloping vineyard site that has won recognition for the opulent, tropical chardonnay it has year in, year out since 2008.

The Kent family's gentle attention to detail in the vineyard is matched to winemaker Julian Halasz's masterful winemaking.

TASTING NOTE

On the nose, alluring aromas of Bartlett pear, buttercream and rosemary-blossom honey exude from the glass. The 2022 both has a finely-honed acidity and a pillowy body, with its oak influence clearest upon the finish. The acidity conveys a hint of Granny Smith apple fresh pineapple and lemon pith on the palate, which will become even more pie-like with aging. Well balanced notes of honeybutter continue on through the creamy finish.
